METHODIST CHURCH FIRST ANNIVERSARY

Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell will Lecture Saturday Evening on
"The New America"

Sunday the Anniversary Celebration With Bishop, District Superintendent and Pastor Taking Part

Sunday, June 10th, at 10 A. M. in the beautiful new First Methodist Episcopal church of Brainerd, corner of Juniper and 6th streets N., will occur the first anniversary of the dedication of the building to the divine worship of Almighty God by Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell, D. D., LL. D., assisted by Dr. Hodgson, Ph. D.

Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell

district superintendent of the Duluth district of the M. E. church, and the pastor, F. W. Hill, S. T. B.

On Saturday evening at 8 o'clock Bishop Charles Mitchell will deliver his most celebrated lecture on "The New America." This address is entertaining, instructive and exceedingly patriotic. The Bishop was in Europe when the war broke out and has first hand information concerning the present world conflagration. Tickets for this lecture will be 50c. This will be a rare treat.

Dedication of New Methodist Church Sunday, June 10th, 1917, was a gala day at the Brainerd Methodist church, the occasion being the dedicatory services of the new church. Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell who was to have presided could not come on account of illness but Dr. John

REV. F. W. HILL, PASTOR

Thompson of Chicago proved a most acceptable substitute. His morning and evening sermons were most forceful.

The dedication services was conducted by Dr. W. C. Hodgson, district superintendent of the Duluth district of the Methodist church. In formally turning the building over, H. F. Michael, chairman of the Building Committee, said that the new building had been planned to properly provide attractive rooms where the young people might have their so-

LAUDS YANKEE VALOR

British Premier Admires Our Style of Fighting.

David Lloyd George Says United States Will Furnish Enough Men to Defeat Foo.

London, June 8.—Addressing the Printers' Pension club at a dinner here, Premier Lloyd George said: "One of the most encouraging things is the superb valor and trained skill with which the Americans are taking their part in the defeat of the foe."

"It is the most encouraging thing because the Americans are coming in steadily in a great flow. We are depending upon them. If the Allies do not succeed this will be a sorry world to live in."

"The fate of the world, the destinies of men, the lives of generations will be fashioned by the failure or triumph of our cause."

"I have just returned from France, where I met a French statesman who had been at the battle front soon after an engagement where the Americans fought. He was full of admiration not merely for their superb valor but the trained skill with which they attacked and defeated the foe. His report of the conduct of the American troops, a division which had been in action for the first time, was one of the most encouraging things that I have heard."

"We know that whenever they appear in the battle line they will fight in a way worthy of the great traditions of their country. This is in itself a source of support, sustenance and encouragement to all those who with anxious hearts are watching the conflict going on in France."

Present Offensive is do or Die With Germany

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS, (Staff Correspondent, United Press)
With the British Afield, June 8.—Hindenburg's third offensive is standing still, where he will begin the fourth is uncertain. German prisoners reflect the idea it is do or die with Germany, hence it is folly to think the offensive has spent itself. Hindenburg has increased his force by forty divisions, or 480,000 men, by the recruiting of younger men and the coming out of other classes. There are 960,000 more men on the western front than a year ago.

The spirit of the Germany army has seldom been keener than now. It is playing Germany's game to make anyone believe otherwise. Recent events have had this effect, and in addition professional dopesters are circulating among the troops bucking them up. They insist the war is almost over, that Germany is invincible and is fighting in self defense, that more Americans are sunk than reach France, and they are arriving untrained and inefficient. That they are unnerved by the submarines en route and are unable to fight. The prisoners taken are insolent, arrogant, sneering and convinced that Germany will win the war. All plan on annexing Chicago.

American Fighting Replete With Feats of Heroism

(By United Press)
With the French Army, June 8.—The allied attack yesterday in the vicinity of Neuilly Laporterie where the American marines played such a conspicuous part was for the purpose of reducing the sharp salient the Germans drove into our lines south of the Chignon river. The Franco-American line now advanced includes Vinly, Neuilly, Laporterieux heights, near Haulviesnes, Torcy and Belleau. The reports of the fighting from French headquarters are replete with feats of heroism. An American lieutenant leaped from the lines, killed an entire German machine gun crew and brought back the gun.

French and Americans Continue to Advance

Paris, June 8.—An official statement says that the French co-operating with the Americans northwest of Chateau Thierry have continued their advance on the northern portion of that front. Two violent German attacks on the southern portion of that line were repulsed.

Americans and French Hold Ground Gained

By FRED S. FERGUSON, (United Press Staff Correspondent)
With the Americans on the Marne, June 8.—The Americans with the French this morning are holding all the ground gained in the last two days on the ten mile front, but after a temporary lull the battle threatens to break out anew at any moment. The American lines runs through Vinly, Bussaires and Belleau to near Boerches, and represents a gain of one to three miles.

French Pay Tribute to American Wounded

(By United Press)
With the Americans in France, June 8.—A long line of ambulances going toward France along a perfect highway shows the price the Americans were willing to pay to stop the German advance. Those who sold their lives for civilization at the price of many hung, are unable to receive France's spontaneous expression of gratitude. Women and children along the roadside silently wave salute as the Americans passed then burst into tears as women raised hands.

Germans Will Smash Their Way to Victory

(By United Press)
The Hague, June 8.—The Vossische Zeitung received here, says the allies will again be surprised and will again call upon the Americans for help. Blow will follow blow like hammered brittle and then Hindenburg will give the death blow.

FORWARD MOVE IS UNCHECKED

Germans Appear Unable to Stop Valiant Attacks of Yankee Marines.

CAPTURE TWO TOWNS

Casualties Suffered by the Enemy
Thus Far Are Said to Be Very Heavy and Ground Lost Is of High Strategic Value.

London, June 8.—In the region northwest of Chateau Thierry, Americans, operating in conjunction with French troops on their left, continue on the offensive without pause.

The Americans' gains of Thursday morning have been extended, so that their advance now is recorded on a front of six miles to a depth of two and one-half miles.

The marines, who have won great praise for their valiant fighting, continue to inflict severe defeats on the enemy.

Battling over a front from Vinly, which lies to the northwest of Veully la Poterie, to Bouresches, the Americans and French have captured the towns of Veully la Poterie and Bouresches and also made progress all along the front. Torcy has fallen into the hands of the Americans.

Marines, Outnumbered, Press on.
Nowhere on this battle line have the Germans been able to stay the efforts of the Allied troops, although they have fought with great tenacity.

The marines everywhere have declined to take a backward step, going forward against the enemy, even when he had superior numbers. Close pressed, the marines have given the Germans a taste of cold steel, even in the face of machine gun fire; surrounded, they have fought their way through the gray-coated lines with the bayonets.

The losses to the enemy thus far are declared to have been extremely heavy and the terrain they have lost is considered of high strategic value, inasmuch as it is on that part of the battle front through which the Germans have hoped to crush their way forward and attain an open road to Paris.

The casualties of the enemy were particularly severe during the street fighting in Bouresches, where the Americans pushed him back step by step.

Advance Exceeds American Plans.
The plans of the American command did not include the capture of Torcy, but, when the marines reached the objective assigned to them, their ardor for battle could not be restrained, and they kept on until the village was in their hands. Twenty-five of the marines drove out 200 Germans from Torcy.

Hard held on the other sectors from Soissons to Chateau Thierry, the Germans, after heavy bombardments, have essayed attacks on the Marne from near Rheims. These attacks were ill-starred, and the enemy had to accept defeat. A French attack at Bligny resulted in that village falling into their hands in its entirety. On the other battle fronts there is slight activity aside from bombardments and patrol encounters.

50,000 ARE MADE HOMELESS

Flames Sweep Mohammedan Section of Constantinople.

Amsterdam, June 8.—Fifty thousand persons are homeless as a result of a fire at Stamboul, Mohammedan section of Constantinople, which devastated the whole eastern part of the Sultan Selim quarter, according to the semi-official Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung of Berlin.

Buildings on both sides of the mosque in that district were destroyed, but the mosque was spared.

Successful Raids Made

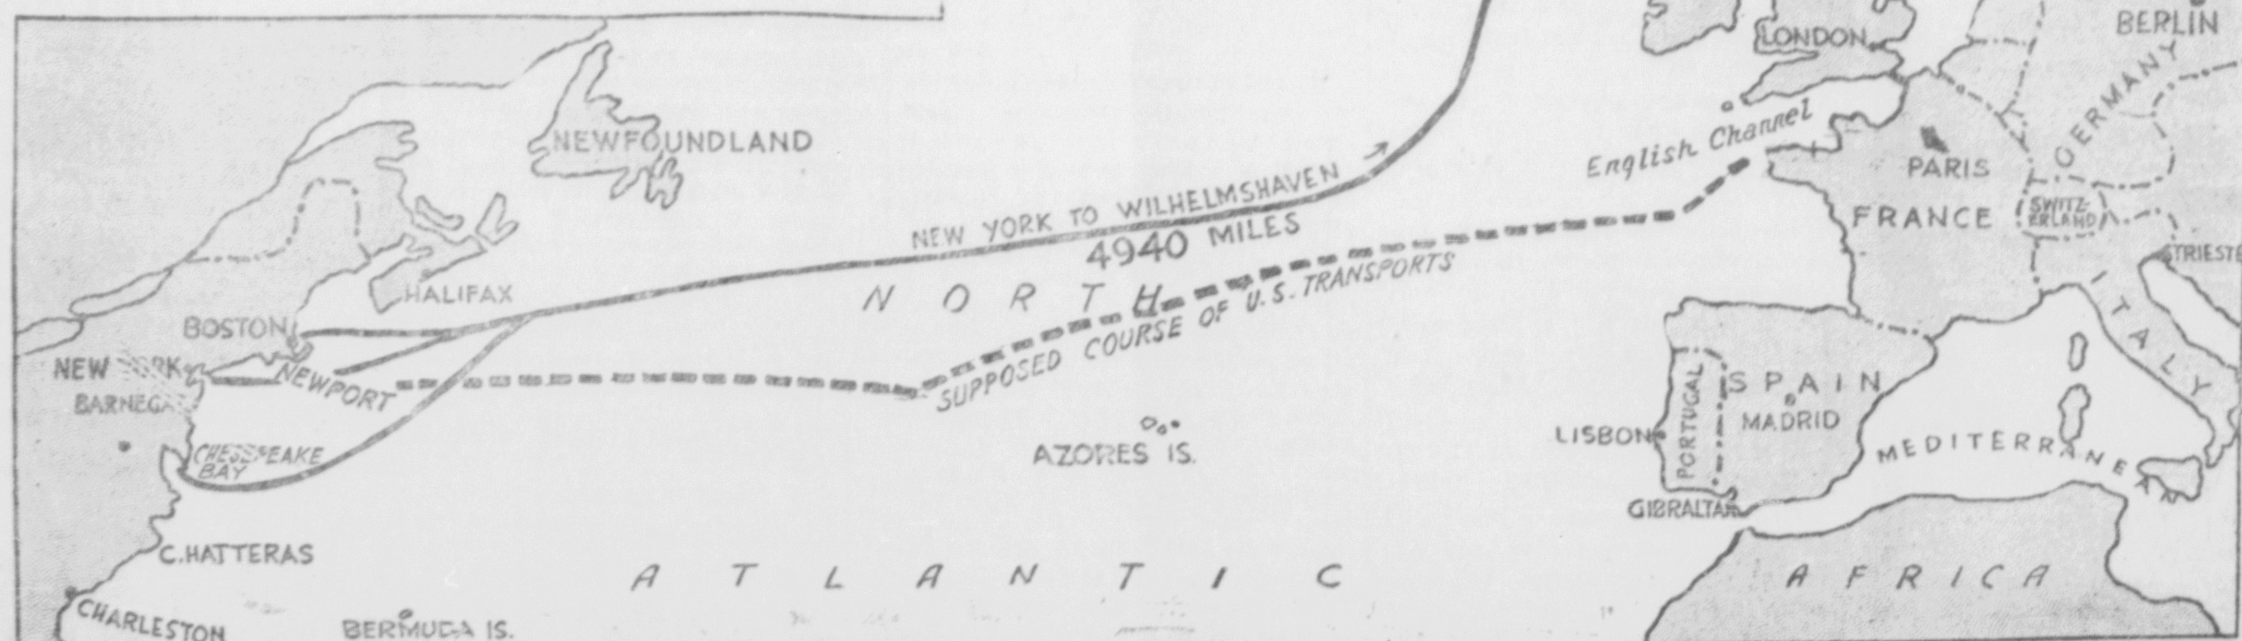

(By United Press)
London, June 8.—General Haig reported successful British raids and active artillery.

Casualty List

(By United Press)
Washington, June 8.—The casualty list contains 108 names.

German Submarines Came Nearly 5,000 Miles to Sink Ships Off Jersey Coast

German submarines which sank ships off the New Jersey coast had to travel nearly 5,000 miles around the north of Great Britain to reach their destination. The map shows their route from Wilhelmshaven, for it is not believed they have been able to leave Zeebrugge or Ostend since the British raid which closed those harbors on the Belgian coast, and the English Channel is crossed with nets. The line in the east Atlantic showing the supposed route of American transports to France is believed to be the area from which these submarines have been driven by the activity of the American navy abroad.

Striking While the Iron's Hot

INDECISION has cost many a fortune.
A certain person—you may know him—admits that by maintaining a savings account and adding something to it out of every pay envelope, he will in time accumulate a fund which will bring one of life's prizes within his reach.

He admits it, makes up his mind to become a consistent money saver, and yet refuses to act. His ardor cools and he slides back into the groove in which he has traveled. Indecision has cost many a fortune.

The very time to start the saving habit is the time when it comes home to one that such action will open up a vista of new possibilities. Delays pay no dividends.

Money spent for trifles enriches others. It earns no interest for the spender. It takes the strength of decision to "hang on" to part of the income.

The kind of decision that underlies many a fortune is the kind that strikes while the iron's hot.

GOVERNMENT KNOWS ALL ABOUT
THE BUSINESS AFFAIRS OF NEARLY EVERY PERSON.

DODGING WILL BE USELESS

Sources of Complete Information Available to Ways and Means Committee When the New Tax Law is Being Framed.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.
Washington.—The people of the United States may not be aware that the government knows pretty much everything about the business of the people of this country. In his address to congress upon the necessity of additional revenue legislation at this session, there was a broad intimation given by President Wilson that the treasury department had information as to who were the war profiteers and that by taxation the men who were making money out of the war could be reached.

Within the past decade there has been a rather wonderful governmental change. It relates to the acquisition of knowledge concerning the business property, and much else regarding corporations and individuals in this country. Through the bureau of corporations, which was organized under Roosevelt's administration and to which the federal trade commission is a successor; through the federal reserve board, which has complete knowledge of the financial conditions of banks and those who patronize banks; and through the income tax returns in the treasury, the government is possessed of information which enables it to know with absolute accuracy the financial condition of corporations and individuals.

Even if hearings are held by the ways and means committee in framing the new tax law, and corporations and individuals appear for the purpose of preventing tax increases, the ways and means committee can go to the treasury department and federal trade commission and find the actual facts about these people. There is a well-grounded opinion in many quarters that great fortunes have been made out of the war and it is altogether likely that the president had these fortunes in mind when he delivered his address to congress.

Members of the house have been firing their knowledge and their ignorance about the war and the way it is carried on. The army appropriation bill carrying $12,000,000,000 for war purposes afforded the generals, colonels, majors, captains, lieutenants and privates in the house of representatives an opportunity to discuss war problems and to carry on a military school on the floor of the house. The teachers were supposed to be the members of the committee on military affairs, with such volunteer aids among the membership as advanced with suggestions and information concerning war matters. Naturally the most discussion was on aircraft and aviation. The members knew less about that subject than any other and consequently were in a position to talk more foolishly than any other group of the war. Other subjects of a similar character which only technical experts can understand also furnished topics for long debates. All of this was very interesting—to the men who were doing the talking.

There is an impression that the United States is altogether too easy with the Hun-binders in this country. It appears that while Americans have been suffering untold hardships in Germany and are subjected to very severe ill treatment and the captured soldiers are forced to work long hours with inadequate food, those German assistants in the United States either are going seat free or, when arrested, are treated not only humanely, but very kindly. There is talk in congress as well as in official circles on this subject and it may be that it will result in more drastic action some time in the future.

Senator Shields of Tennessee, although serving his first term, has already won the reputation of being a solid and substantial legal pillar on the Democratic side. When close constitutional questions arise and proposed legislation with knotty legal problems is considered the views of the Tennessee senator are sought by his colleagues, and when he discusses such subjects he always has the attention of the best legal minds in the senate.

Congressman Walsh of Massachusetts has always taken a strong interest in the Congressional Record. Besides being a champion of space-saving and a conscientious objector to the insertion of worthless reading matter, he does not like to see remarks that have been made on the floor altered and revised when they appear in the Record. When Congressman Caldwell of New York was granted leave to extend his remarks recently it was Walsh who arose a day or so after the extension appeared and commented caustically on the fact that although Caldwell's speech had never even been delivered on the floor, when it appeared in the Record it was liberally sprinkled with insertions of the word "applause."

Chaos Exists in Austria

Berne, June 8.—Austria is about to undergo an experience similar to that of Russia, when the czar was de-throned, according to statements made by travelers returning from Vienna. They declared it is significant that innumerable attempts have been made against military works and establishments. In the Adriatic region Slavs have destroyed mines in the ports and canals of Dalmatia and on the Croatian coast. In Bosnia Hungarian patrols have been massacred and rail ways seriously damaged.

welcome the opportunity to enjoy her playing again.

Rev. Carl Hognander, is pastor of the Bethany church of Minneapolis, as well as an army pastor at Camp Dodge, Iowa. Brainerd people will remember him as having charge of the music during the Swedish revival meetings held at the opera house a few years ago, when Rev. Gust F.
Johnson of Minneapolis, was the evangelist. Rev. Hognander will speak on his experiences as army pastor at Camp Dodge, and will have a very interesting message to deliver to Brainerd people. He made many friends on his former visit here who will be glad to hear him speak and sing again.

At the Best Monday

Here is a story that will put the brakes on insidious German propaganda in America. It is a faith and courage builder; an answer to those sly and secret tongues that are striking at the morale of the American people. The spirit of "Joan of Plattsburg" is for the women of America. Men may react to false rumors; their efficiency may be reduced through enemy propaganda, but the faith of women is enduring and constitutes an impregnable fortress in times of national trial. Every girl, as well as every boy and every man and woman, has asked herself or will ask herself: "What can I do for my country?" The answer is provided in "Joan of Plattsburg;" that the girls and women of America can uphold, by glorious spiritual service, the faith of their men; that their country love and belief in the invincibility of the nation will confound the enemies within who are striking at its heart. "Joan of Plattsburg" at the Kidney disease often advances so rapidly that many a person is firmly in its grasp before aware of its progress. Prompt attention should be given the slightest symptoms of kid-in the back, headaches, dizzy spells or a tired, worn-out feeling, or if the kidney secretions are offensive, irregular and attended by pain, procure a good kidney remedy at once.

Your townspeople recommend was sediment in the kidney secre-

METHODIST CHURCH

FIRST ANNIVERSARY

cial gatherings and a fitting place for worship.

Fraternal greetings from the Baptist and Presbyterian churches by Rev. R. E. Cody and Rev. W. J. Lowrie were very fine, their themes being
"Next Door Neighbors" and "Spiritual Fraternism." Former pastors present were Rev. Charles Fox Davis of Minneapolis and Rev. E. E. Satterlee of Grafton, N. D., both of whom took part in the services. Many were the congratulations received by the pastor, Rev. F. W. Hill, upon the completion of so beautiful a church building. The harmonies of the auditorium are beautiful indeed. It is finished in oak, the gothic effect being used in windows, panelling and pews. The windows of art glass are simple but beautiful in coloring and design, giving a pleasing soft light.
The financial response on dedication Sunday was splendid. The improvements cost some $20,000, about half of which is paid in and the balance is covered by subscription. The church expressed much gratitude for the support by many friends. The Building Committee are very anxious that those who have made these subscriptions would realize the importance of meeting these obligations

Dr. C. W. Hodgson, Ph. D.

promptly. There will also be some interest that is not covered by subscription but if all those who have made pledges will take care of them promptly it will make the various obligations incurred by the erection of this beautiful church easily taken care of. Although most of the material was bought before the war prices struck the country, some articles went up two or three prices over what was expected to be paid.
The committee again desire to thank all those who have been so generous in making this building possible.

Fancies of Children.

The Spectator speaks of that "region into which the 'grownup' has no right of entry, and no key to turn the lock," the mind of the child, and then gives some instantaneous flashes of the child point of view, a point of view discon-certingly aloof and apart from that of "grownups." A child, on a torpedoed ship, when everyone was anxiously hoping that it would keep afloat, was heard to say, in a weary voice: "Oh, when will the ship go down?" A small boy who was being shown the bust of his grandfather, mounted on a little circular stand, asked his mother whether his grandfather had been a very wise man, and then added: "But was that all there was of him?" Perhaps the capping story is that of another little boy who, when told to make no remark on a guest's absent foot, exclaimed: "Oh, no, and when I get to heaven I will say nothing to John the Baptist about his head."

WHEN CITY WAS "HARD UP"

New York Once Sought Legislative Authority to Run Lottery to Secure Needed Funds.

A hitherto unpublished letter of De-Witt Clinton, written in 1809 to John Pinard, clerk of the common council while Mr. Clinton was in the New York state senate, on legislative bills regarding city improvements, was recently discovered in an interesting way during the editing of the New York common council minutes from 1784 to 1831. The chief topic of interest in the letter is a reference to a bill introduced at the request of the common council asking that the legislature authorize a lottery for $100,- 000 for the purpose of raising sufficient funds for the completion of the present city hall.

Dr. A. Everett Peterson, editor of the common council minutes, found a reference to the letter in the minutes of the period and instituted a search for it. His hunt was rewarded by finding it among a mass of loose papers in the custody of the city clerk and it has been reproduced in facsimile with the minutes of 1809, published in the fifth volume of the printed minutes. The letter is dated from Albany, March 12, 1809. Mr. Clinton was mayor of New York city and also a state senator, the mayor then being appointed by the governor, and Mr.
Clinton held the office several years.
On the subject of the lottery for completing the city hall, Mr. Clinton said:
"There appears to be a determination in the legislature not to grant any more lotteries. The memorial of the common council praying for one has been committed in the assembly, and a bill has been introduced, but there is no hope of its passing."

PEANUT PUT TO MANY USES

Nutritious Oil and Palatable Butter Derived From the Humble "Goob-er," Beloved of Childhood.

The peanut isn't a nut at all, but a member of the pea, bean and clover family. It is a legume and gathers nitrogen from the air. Peanuts do not grow from roots, but on shoots which grow out from the plant above ground, bear a little sterile yellow blossom and then shoot directly into the ground, where they "peg." That is, where peanuts begin to grow on them. The peanuts are pulled from the vines or roots, and the roots are then plowed back into the ground to allow the nitrogen to feed the soil. The peanuts are then taken to peanut factories. In these buildings the peanuts are cleaned and sorted. The largest are saved and put through a rubber, which polishes the shells. These are sold in the shells.
Other first grades are shelled and sold for salting; and one big packing company buys only first grades for peanut butter.

If the peanuts are pulled roots and all, the peanuts are dried out by stacking on poles, then pulled off and sold.
Broken peanuts are pressed and the oil extracted. Much of this oil is sold as "pure olive oil." In fact, it is quite as rich and nutritious as olive oil. The refuse is pressed into cakes and sold as oil cakes for feeding stock and especially dairy cows.—St. Nicholas.

Shakespeare Mentioned Cambrail.
The product to which Cambrail gave its name, for it was first manufactured there, is made in many other places now; but French cambrail is always the best and has always been popular.
Shakespeare let us know that it was in use in Elizabeth's day, and in George II's it was discovered, to the national horror, that we were sending £200,000 a year to France in payment for it.
Wherefore acts of parliament were frequently passed under which anyone wearing it or selling it except for exportation was liable to a fine of £5.—

SATURDAY, JUNE 8, 1918.

HAIL, THE BACK YARD!

There is one way to side-step the high cost of living and that is by utilizing the back yard. Dad could roll up his sleeves on almost any day of the spring and summer, go out into the back yard, and bring in more than you can now buy at the store with a week's wages.

You see, dad had a garden and chickens at least, and sometimes a cow and some shots. Whereas the city dwellers—and even many in the villages—buy in cans about every mouthful they eat.

Back to the back yard, friends! Make gardeners of the kiddies. Lettuce, onions and radishes come up in about two weeks. No long waits. You can raise your own cabbages, potatoes, sweet corn, beets, carrots, peas, beans, parsnips, mangoes, etc. Plant fruit trees, berries and grapes.

You can live like a prince, and besides you can dry, preserve and can enough to keep you like the bees themselves in winter. Your chickens will furnish you with eggs and meat.

You don't know how to start it? Ask dad—he knows! Any almanac will tell you. Any merchant selling seed will tell you. Get in the game early and take a long swing at the high cost of living.

THE BAREFOOT DAYS

Shortage of leather on account of the war may induce the return of the barefoot days in the summer. There was Longfellow's lad, lips stained with strawberries and barefooted, wending his way whistling.

There followed the aesthetic dancing on the sands of California beaches by religious cults and high priestesses in the arts of physical culture fads.

Came then the siege of barefooted girls dancing to Greek themes.

For many years the bathers have ventured barefooted upon beach and occasionally wet a toe.

Now in case of necessity, all may be induced to patriotically discard shoes in summer months and save the leather. It would not be so great a hardship. Besides it would contribute materially to the health of all concerned. A trip back to nature might cure a lot of foot trouble. The kids would not object to it. It's being done now by the people of the Central powers.

MANGANIFEROUS ORE.

When the first discovery of manganiferous ore was made on the Cuyuna iron range, the Brainerd Dispatch heralded it to the world and predicted the time when the Cuyuna would supply the ore in ever increasing demand to the furnaces.

High browed, technical writers of mining journals assailed the Dispatch for even daring to intimate there was such a thing as an iron with the least trace of manganese and for daring to arouse the hope that the ore would ever be of any commercial use, for they asserted it was away below thirty per cent manganiferous.

Now comes the United States government and puts Cuyuna range manganiferous ore in Class 1 and gives it the right of way over any other products. With manganese shipments shut off from Russia, India and other points, the country now gets an ever-increasing supply from the Cuyuna iron range.

BUY WAR SAVING STAMPS

The people of this country must buy more War Saving Stamps and bonds or pay more taxes seems to be the gist of Secretary McAdoo's latest request for more revenue.

There is no other way to finance the war than for the people of the United States to do it and it is merely a question whether they will have War Saving Stamps, bonds or a tax receipt to show for what they contribute to meet these expenses.

Those who are "long headed" are investing at present in War Saving Stamps. These help finance the war the same as taxes and in 1923 the government returns every cent with 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly.

The solicitors start Monday to solicit the citizens of Brainerd. Brainerd has yet to fall down on a single war activity—it must not on this.

HIDE UNDER BUSHEL

The days of hiding your light under a bushel are here again. The Biblical injunction entirely to the contrary was to have your light shine out boldly so the world would know where to find you. But that did not apply to war times when hun air raiders were likely to put in an appearance. The gilded dome of the Capitol at Washington, D. C., which used to blaze in all the richness of its twenty-three carat gold leaf and 500 electric lights, has now been darkened and a canvas camouflage will conceal the dome. The whole thing was altogether too good a target for an alien airman venturing above Washington.

A GOOD OLD TUNE

German ears never did like the tune of Yankee Doodle. Herr Muck, leader of a big symphony orchestra, said there was little harmony in the Star Spangled Banner. The German musical ear was offended Wednesday and Thursday when the U. S. Marines advanced and drove back the Huns for miles.

To the accompaniment of singing and whistling Yankee Doodle, the Marines methodically went to work and cleared out the Huns. It was done in 2-4 time with a bayonet charge for the chorus. There was no chance for the Germans to sing "Die Wacht am Rhein."

MOTHER'S PIE

Read the soldiers' letters and see if home and mother are not always the first consideration. When Johnny goes to the front it's mother's touch, mother's kindness and sympathy and that perfect understanding, mother's pie and mother's doughnuts he remembers. And on the battle field, should a bullet lay him low, it's a prayer to mother that will be his last words. Glory to the mothers of America, theirs is the greatest sacrifice in this war as it was in every war of America.

FOLLOW BRAINERD LEAD

The Brainerd idea of transporting baseball players of the Central Minnesota Red Cross league solely by automobile has been copied by the Pacific Coast league, which beginning Sunday will transport its teams between San Francisco and Los Angeles, it was announced by Allan T. Baum, president of the league.

The increased railroad and Pullman fares, effective June 10, made it imperative for the league to take the step, he said.

LOOKING FOR DARK SIDE

It's usually the pessimist who is decried for looking at the dark side of things, but today all Brainerd got a piece of smoked glass and kept eyes on the sun to spot the total eclipse. As this event happens about once in 326 years, nobody wanted to miss the performance.

JUNE BRIDES

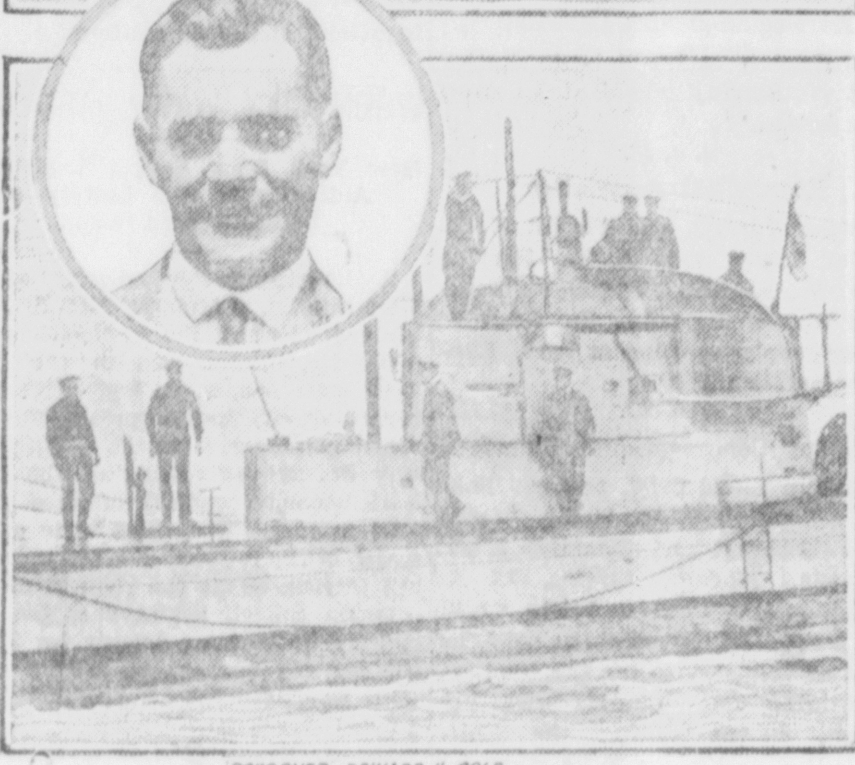

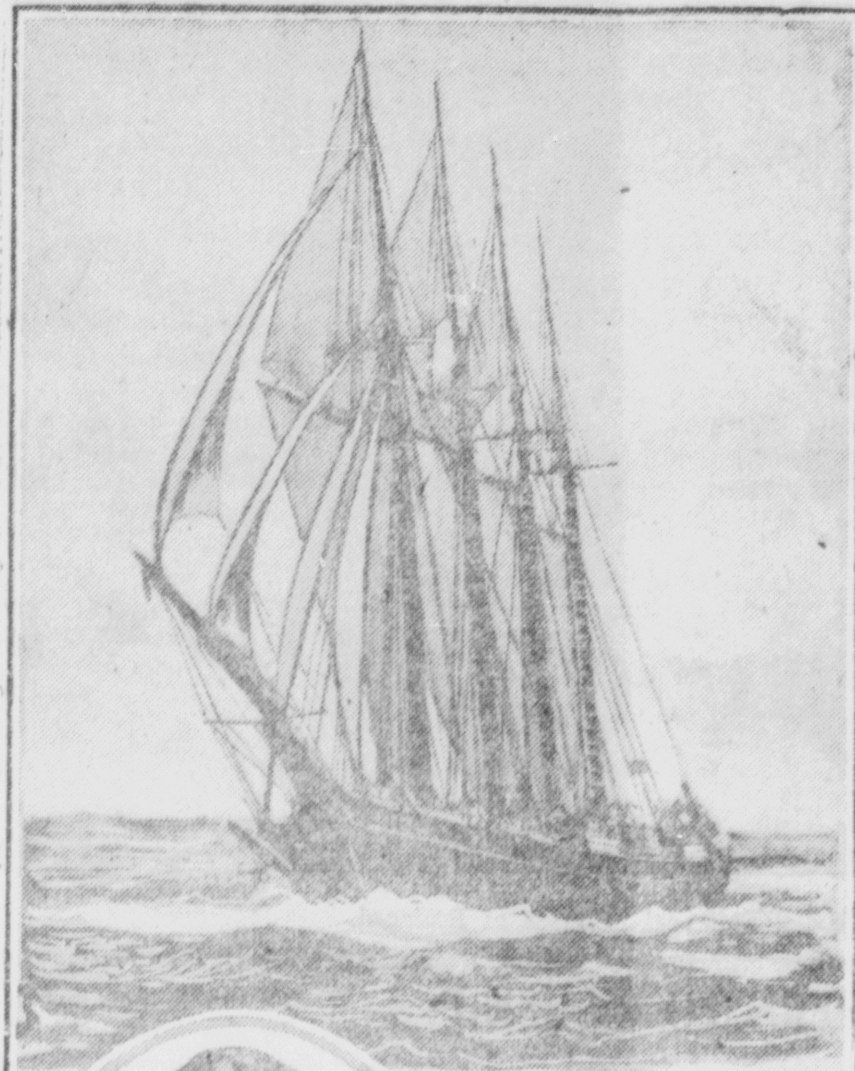

Mars has cut into the business of Hymen and June brides appear a scarcity this year. June, given over to the shimmery, glowing, girlish bride, appears in Brainerd and Crow Wing county to have lost its chief attraction.

10,000 ARE MASSACRED

Turks Kill That Number of Armenians in Two Weeks.

Commander of Russian Black Sea Fleet Imprisoned For Inciting Sailors Against Bolsheviks

London, June 8.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Moscow says that a bitter struggle is being waged in the Caucasus between the new Caucasian government and the Turks.

The Turks are reported to have massacred more than 10,000 Armenians within a fortnight.

The Caucasian government has ordered the mobilization of all men between the ages of 19 and 42 and newly formed Caucasian detachments are concentrating in the Tiflis district.

Captain Stikhanov, commander of the Russian Baltic fleet has been imprisoned on a charge of inciting the sailors against the authority of the Soviet government, says a Reuter dispatch.

The Russian Soviet government is meeting with difficulties in its efforts to conclude peace with the Ukrainian government and prevent further encroachment upon Russian territory by German and Ukrainian troops. The peace conference at Kiev is being delayed and in the meantime German and Ukrainian troops have occupied new districts of Russia. The German command has declared it is inopportune to conclude peace before the occupation of all important Ukrainian districts is effected.

Oppose German Union.

Amsterdam, June 8.—A great majority of Lettish and Estonian populations do not desire a union with Germany says the German author Hans Vorst, writing in the Berliner Tageblatt. Antagonism to the Baltic Germans is ingrained deeply in the Estonian and is ingrained deeply in the says, and this antagonism is deepened greatly by the social gulf.

The Allies had been pushed back by a surprise attack and the hospital accommodations of the town were quickly filled. Wounded men overflowed into the streets and lay about unable to move, no matter how near the aviators dropped bombs or how low the aviators flew to use their machine guns.

Information Leaks Stopped.

Washington, June 8.—Government agents now feel sure they have stopped all means of clandestine cable or radio communication between the United States and Germany. After investigation they have found that it takes usually four or five weeks for information published generally in this country to be published in Germany or Austria. This is about the time required to carry newspapers or mail matter to Germany through the North European neutral countries.

LAKE YIELDS TONS OF SALT

Natural Phenomenon in South Australia Constant Source of Revenue to Its Owner.

On Yorks peninsula, in South Australia, says a writer in the Wide World, is a wonderful lake of pure salt. It is a huge depression in the earth which fills up in the winter months. In the hot summer sun the water quickly evaporates, leaving a thick deposit of almost pure salt. Seen from a distance the surface of the lake has all the appearance of being covered with a sheet of ice. That salt crust is so thick and strong that men and even carts and plows can traverse it with perfect safety. Yet below the crust there is a considerable body of sluggish water.

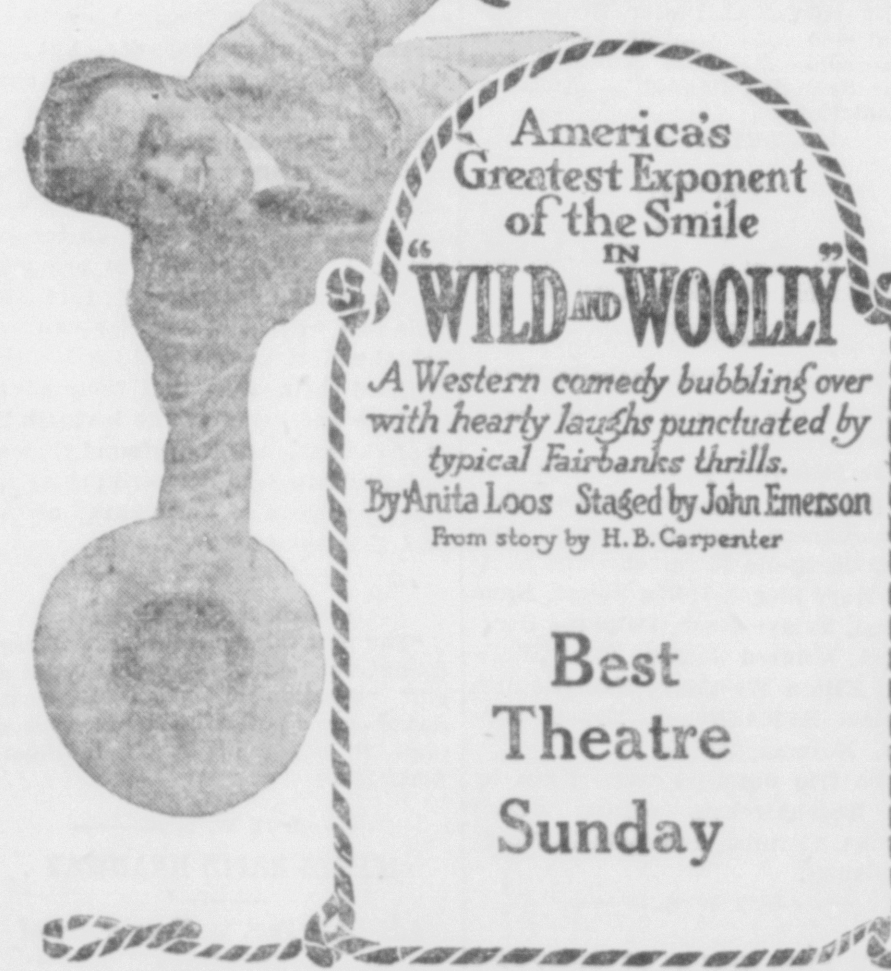

After the rays of the summer sun have played their part, the salt is gathered. It is just raked into heaps, and these pyramids of salt are a striking feature of the landscape. The salt is now shoveled into carts and conveyed to various works on the seaboard, to undergo the process of refining. Gathering the salt is trying work on account of the great heat and the dazzling reflection. Often it is necessary for the men to wear colored glasses to protect the eyes. After the loose salt has been collected from the surface a special kind of plow is run over it, when another harvest of the valuable material can be reaped. The yield of salt from this strange lake amounts to several thousand tons a year, and it is among the finest obtainable. The lake is several square miles in area and is naturally a very valuable property.

WILL SPLIT BIGGEST ROCKS

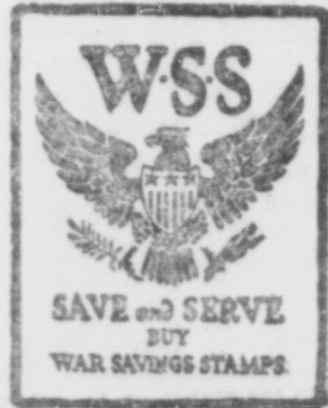

Seemingly Nothing in Nature Is Able to Withstand Expansive Force of Tree's Roots.

This might very well be considered a nature puzzle. Why should any sensible tree apparently select a dry rock for a home when there is plenty of good soil all about in which to grow? As a matter of fact there is so little rainfall where one tree grows, in New Mexico, that it is something of a wonder to an eastern traveler how any tree, even with its roots spreading through the soil in every direction, can stand the long drought of months' duration. When a cedar tree, however, is seen to be growing out of a crack in a rock in an almost desert region the matter becomes a veritable mystery. Even under such adverse conditions, trees will split the hardest of rock. No rock can withstand the expansive force of a growing tree. Sometimes the rock is cracked off in pieces gradually, but oftentimes a big rock is split fairly in two, the tree roots relentlessly forcing their way downward. Time is no consideration to the tree and every spring it returns to the attack, as the new sap invigorates its roots and trunk, never giving a fraction of an inch of what it has once gained. The fight is a slow but entirely one-sided affair.

NORWEGIAN SHIP SUNK BY U-BOAT

Vinland Is Destroyed Sixty-five Miles Off the Virginia Capes.

ENTIRE CREW RESCUED

Naval Authorities Believe It Will Not Be Safe Again to Assume American Waters Are Free From German Submarines.

Washington, June 8.—The navy department announces that the Norwegian steamship Vinland has been sunk by a German submarine 65 miles off the Virginia capes. The crew was rescued and landed at Cape May, N. J.

No details were given in the brief dispatch to the department. This statement was issued: "The Navy department is informed that the Norwegian steamer Vinland, 1,193 tons, was bombed and sunk by a submarine about 65 miles off the coast of Virginia. The crew were landed at Cape May, N. J."

First Since Harpathian. The Vinland was sent down nine hours after the British steamer Harpathian was torpedoed 25 miles farther from the Virginia coast. Until word of her sinking came from Cape May nothing had been heard of the operations of the enemy raiders since the landing of the Harpathian's crew.

The Vinland was a schooner-registered steamer, owned by O. and A. Irgens & Co., of Bergen, and commanded by Captain Bratland. She was built in Bergen in 1906, with a gross tonnage of 1,193 and a length of 228 feet. She was last listed as having arrived at an American port on May 11.

The possibility that German submarines are lurking off the Atlantic coast hereafter must be regarded as a continuing factor in American war measures. In the opinion of many naval officials, they believe it will never be safe again to assume American waters are free of this menace as long as the U-boats are at large.

A carefully planned campaign, having both offensive and defensive phases, was approved long ago and probably now is well under way.

SEVEN ACCUSED OF PLOTTING

Grand Jury Indicts Five Citizens and Two Germans.

New York, June 8.—Five American citizens and two subjects of the German empire, one of them a woman, are named as fellow conspirators in two indictments returned by a federal grand jury here. Investigators declared their operations the most sensational undertaken by German intelligence agents since the war began.

The indictments alleged conspiracy to commit treason and conspiracy to commit espionage. The principals named in the alleged plots are: Jeremiah A. O'Leary, indicted for conspiracy to commit treason.

The Baroness Marie de Victoria reported to be related to Kaiser Wilhelm, accused of being a German spy.

John T. Ryan, a Buffalo lawyer.

Willard Robinson, O'Leary's chauffeur, indicted on the same count as O'Leary.

Lieutenant Commander Karl Rodiger, of the German Navy, charged with being a spy.

Albert Claude Fricke, former auditor of the Hamburg American line of steamers.

Emil Kilper, charged with complicity in the plot.

Eleven Americans Honored. With the American Army in Lorraine, June 8.—The following Americans have been awarded the distinguished service cross for "conspicuous heroism": Lieut. C. B. Redwood, Corp. H. J. Mongen, Privates E. V. Armstrong, B. H. Bolt and C. L. Shumatt. While on patrol duty they invaded the enemy trenches, captured twice their number of prisoners, drove off a rescue party and brought the prisoners back to the American lines. Valuable information was obtained from the prisoners.

Waiting for Larger Prey. Washington, June 8.—Belief that the German submarines which early in the week successfully attacked coasting schooners and steamers off the New Jersey coast now are lying in wait for larger prey in one of the transatlantic travel routes of the Virginia capes was expressed in official circles here. This theory was strengthened by the torpedoing Wednesday of the British steamer Harpathian, 100 miles off the Virginia coast, news of which was announced in Navy department dispatches.

TWO-THIRDS OF U-BOATS SUNK

Shipping Losses of Allies Have Been Cut In Half Senator Announces.

ENEMY MINES SINK TUG

Sent Down, With Two Coal Barges, Off Delaware Coast and Fate Of Men in Charge Is Not Known

Washington, June 8.—After a conference with navy heads, Senator C. A. Swanson, acting chairman of the Senate naval committee, declared that Allied and American forces have destroyed 60 per cent of all German submarines constructed and that they have cut shipping losses in half.

Belief that the German submarines which successfully attacked coasting schooners and steamers off the New Jersey coast are now lying in wait for larger prey in one of the transatlantic travel routes of the Virginia capes was expressed in official circles here.

Having as the Germans believed, struck fear into the hearts of America through depredations near the ports of New York and Philadelphia, it is probable, officials said, that the U-boat commanders have decided to make a bolder effort and despite the multitude of patrol craft engaged in the search for them, make a supreme effort with a transport or large cargo or passenger-carrying vessels as the prize.

Strike Without Warning. In the torpedoing of the Harpathian the raiders struck without warnings and apparently at an armed vessel.

The navy department had not received word as to whether the ship was armed but expressed the opinion that it was as all British steamers plying through the war zone carry guns. The Harpathian went down within seven or eight minutes after the torpedo struck, but the crew managed to get away and were landed late yesterday at a port in Chesapeake bay.

The sinking of the Harpathian brought the total number of victims of the German raiders to 14—6 steamers and 8 schooners.

Strike Without Warning. New orders, tightening up regulations governing the licensing and movement of tugs and other vessels in American harbors in anticipation of war conditions being brought to this side of the Atlantic, will be issued shortly by the treasury, and enforced by custom authorities, it was indicated.

Vessels will be required to get licenses and to submit to more strict rules concerning movement and anchorage.

Persons will not be allowed to carry cameras on or about harbors, except on ferry boats.

Philadelphia, June 8.—The port of Philadelphia was reopened following the clearing of the mine field in Delaware bay.

CALLS VICTORY FIRST DUTY

Samuel Gompers Arrives in St. Paul for Labor Convention.

St. Paul, June 8.—Additions to the vanguard of American Federation of Labor notables continued to arrive in St. Paul and included Samuel Gompers, president, Frank Morrison, secretary, and James Wilson of Cincinnati, who was chairman of the labor mission to Europe which returned a week ago.

To gain a military victory on the east side of the Atlantic and to maintain American ideals on the west side, are the first duties of every American, said Mr. Gompers, between hand shakes.

2 NORTHWEST MEN KILLED

Names Are Included in Latest Army Casualty List.

Washington, June 8.—The latest Army casualty list contained 48 names, divided as follows: Killed in action 17. Died of wounds, 12. Died of accident, 6. Died of disease, 7. Wounded severely, 6.

The following names of soldiers appear in the list: Private Joseph W. Bousset, Cheyenne, N. D., and Private Nass B. Shaheen, Moorehead, Minn., killed in action; Private Louis C. Sayer, Vergas, Minn., died of wounds; Private George E. Finicle, Huron, S. D., died of accident; Corporal Ira M. Curtiss, Virginia, Minn., severely wounded.

Vesuvius Again in Eruption. Rome, June 8.—Mount Vesuvius is again in eruption; but the outbreak has not yet assumed a dangerous scope.

Enemy Troop Trains Active. With the American Army in France, June 8.—Extraordinary heavy railway train movements from the northwest to the westward in the rear of the enemy lines northwest of Toul were reported by the American patrols.

Aerial observers made similar reports, saying at one time the flares from the funnels of the locomotives of several trains were visible simultaneously. The trains, apparently headed in the direction of St. Mihiel, passed during the better part of the night.

ALL CHARGES LOOK WORST AT FIRST

INQUIRY ALWAYS TONES DOWN THE ACCUSATIONS AGAINST MEN RUNNING THE WAR.

TRYING TO DO THEIR BEST

Non-Combatant Officers Would Be Glad to Go to the Front—Senator Gallinger Has Some Fun With a New Colleague.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington.—All criticism of the conduct of the war, all charges of malfeasance in office, all stories about fraud and wastage of money, will be found upon examination to be much worse when they are first made than they are after investigation. In all such things it seems to be a characteristic of human nature to put the worst possible phase upon any given situation when an attack is made. Even a public prosecutor, who is supposed to conduct himself towards accused persons with absolute fairness, will, in his eagerness to prove his case, be unfair, unjust and oftentimes unscrupulous.

Perhaps this accounts for the general serenity of those who are in charge of the conduct of the war whenever they have seen the sensational accusations that are frequently brought against them. For the most part the officers of the government are trying to do the best they can, but they know that it is human nature to make mistakes. "In this gigantic war and its gigantic expenditures," said a cabinet officer recently, "there will be mistakes, wastage, and sometimes graft, but the American people should know that 99 per cent of us are doing the best we can."

Although there has been a great deal of complaint about the number of men in the uniform of officers in Washington and elsewhere who are in the noncombatant branches of the army, it may be set down as a fact that all these officers want to get "over there." It is doubtful if you will find an officer anywhere who is not anxious to go to France, and for the most part it may be said that they are willing to go up against the hated Hun. While it is a fact that there are thousands of officers in uniform who will never get an opportunity to go to France, it is also a fact that there is a very large number of officers in France who will not get an opportunity to go to the front. There are noncombatant officers of the United States army "over there," just as there are over here.

Senator Gallinger took an unfair advantage of Senator Thompson of Kansas recently. Gallinger has passed his eightieth birthday and is the senior of the senate. Thompson is a young senator in his first term. No one would suspect that a venerable statesman "from old New Hampshire and her cloud-capped granite hills" would assume the role of humorist—with a mask as impenetrable as the camouflage on the western front—and lead an unsuspecting Kansas youth into a pit concealed by honeyed words and seemingly sincere and sober inquiries. But alas for the perils of humanity; alas for the duplicity of four score years. Gallinger, the senior, not only in years but in service, with an apparent desire to acquire information, toyed with and had fun with the youthful and earnest senator from Kansas.

The privilege of presiding over the house of representatives is much more carefully guarded than the similar privilege in the senate. There are probably not more than a dozen congressmen who are called on from time to time to take the chair in the house. The 423 other members must worship from afar. But in the senate there are often as many as half a dozen men in the vice president's chair in one day. Even the new senators usually get a chance to do the honors within a couple of weeks after their election. But then the senate practically runs itself. Its rules are simpler than those of the house. Besides, the senators know theirs. So the man who handles the speaker's gavel has to be a good parliamentarian and also must be able to "bolter" with the best of them.

John W. Rainey of Illinois, one of the very newest members of the house, has not waited for the "newness" to wear off before engaging in debate. He has several times expressed his opinion and just the other day he secured applause from the house when he declared that it was his purpose to support a bill that would make it compulsory for the great number of aliens in this country who have resided here for many years to take out their citizenship papers. Naturalization by compulsion is a novel proposition, but it might receive considerable support in congress.

"Have a care" should be the watchword of those people who have been rather free in their speech and have been criticized or commented freely about the government and what it is doing in regard to the war. The new law recently passed gives the postmaster general power to close the mails against any person that he finds has been guilty of seditious utterances, either oral, printed or written. It is well for those who have been too free in their comments to be a little careful in the future.

Food Quotas.

The man who works hard needs in a day 12 ounces of one or of a combination of the following: Meat, poultry, cheese, dried vegetables, fish or eggs. To vary the above he may count every glass of milk drunk equal to an ounce of any one of the others. The soldiers, either in home or military life, must have four pounds of fresh fruit and vegetables in order to keep the bony structure in good condition. He will need the three-quarters of a cupful of fat (this includes butter, oil, the fat of meat eaten or any other fat in the daily diet) to keep him warm, and to this group he must add one and one-fourth pounds of bread or cereal and finally, in order to complete the necessary amount of driving power, he must have two ounces of sugar or one-third of a cupful of sirup.

Know Them by Their Laughter.

The far-seeing man with a sense of humor laughs in his throat in spasmodic little bursts. He looks before he leaps. He takes a good survey of a question before committing himself. Neither laughter nor speech escapes easily. He lets them out judiciously. Those who laugh inside, shake their shoulders and go red in the face are generally a good-tempered sort, generous and aboveboard. But look round the corner when you see the man coming who swallows his laugh as though it would defile his lips. If he is your master he will sweat you; if he is your parent, he will bully you; if your husband, he will make you miserable.

Insure Good Results.

If one is pressed for time a good showing can be made by keeping cool and quietly disposing of one task before beginning another. Hurry and excitement will hinder any cause. But the person who has mastered himself or herself—who remains calm under all circumstances—is the man or woman who does splendid work.

Learning to concentrate one's mind upon the duty at hand is, indeed, an effort worth while. Therefore, the girl or woman who would spare herself hours of needless worry or excitement should wisely keep her head—in other words, give her best attention to whatever task confronts her.

Small Request.

"Boss, would it hurt you much to separate yourself from a little coin?" "Why, no, here's a nickel. See? I give it to you cheerfully."

"Thanks, boss. De good book says it's more blessed to give than to receive. Judging from de way you look an' de way I feel I guess de good book is right."

Our Boys in France and Home Protection

The men on the firing line represent the pick of our American youth. One in four of our boys at home was sick, rejected because of physical deficiency. Many times the kidneys were to blame.

If we wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if we want to increase our chances for a long life, Dr. Pierce's Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., says that we should drink plenty of water daily between meals. Then procure at the nearest drug store, Anuric (double strength). The cost is 60c. This "An-uric" drives the uric acid out and cures backache and rheumatism.

If we wish to keep our kidneys in the best condition a diet of milk and vegetables, with only little meat once a day, is the most suitable. Drink plenty of pure water, take Anuric three times a day for a month. You can obtain a trial package of Anuric by sending 10c to Dr. V. M. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

St. Paul, Minn.—"I just want to say that Anuric has done for me what many other remedies have utterly failed to do. For over thirty years I suffered with rheumatic pains. At times I would have them in my back, then they would start in my left shoulder and run down into my arms, also in my left side extending down the limb to my ankle. I can't begin to tell how much I suffered during this time. A short time ago I heard of Dr. Pierce's Anuric. I have only taken one bottle of the tablets and today have not a pain or an ache. I cannot say enough in its praise."—JOHN EVANSON, 1069 Greenbrier Avenue.

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts before breakfast if your Back hurts or Bladder is troubling you.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will set fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
